What ‘really’ happened on a day that policy was changed?

... 3 August 2016

Statement by Glenn Stevens, Governor: Monetary Policy Decision, 2 August 2016 (14:30 AEST)

Abridged

The Board decided to lower the cash rate by 25 basis points to 1.50 per cent, effective 3 August 2016.

The global economy is continuing to grow, at a lower than average pace.

Australia's terms of trade remain much lower ...

... globally, monetary policy remains remarkably accommodative.

In Australia, ... growth is continuing at a moderate pace ...

... inflation remains quite low.

Supervisory measures have strengthened lending standards ... the likelihood of lower interest rates exacerbating risks in the housing market has diminished.

... prospects for sustainable growth in the economy, with inflation returning to target over time, would be improved by easing monetary policy at this meeting.
